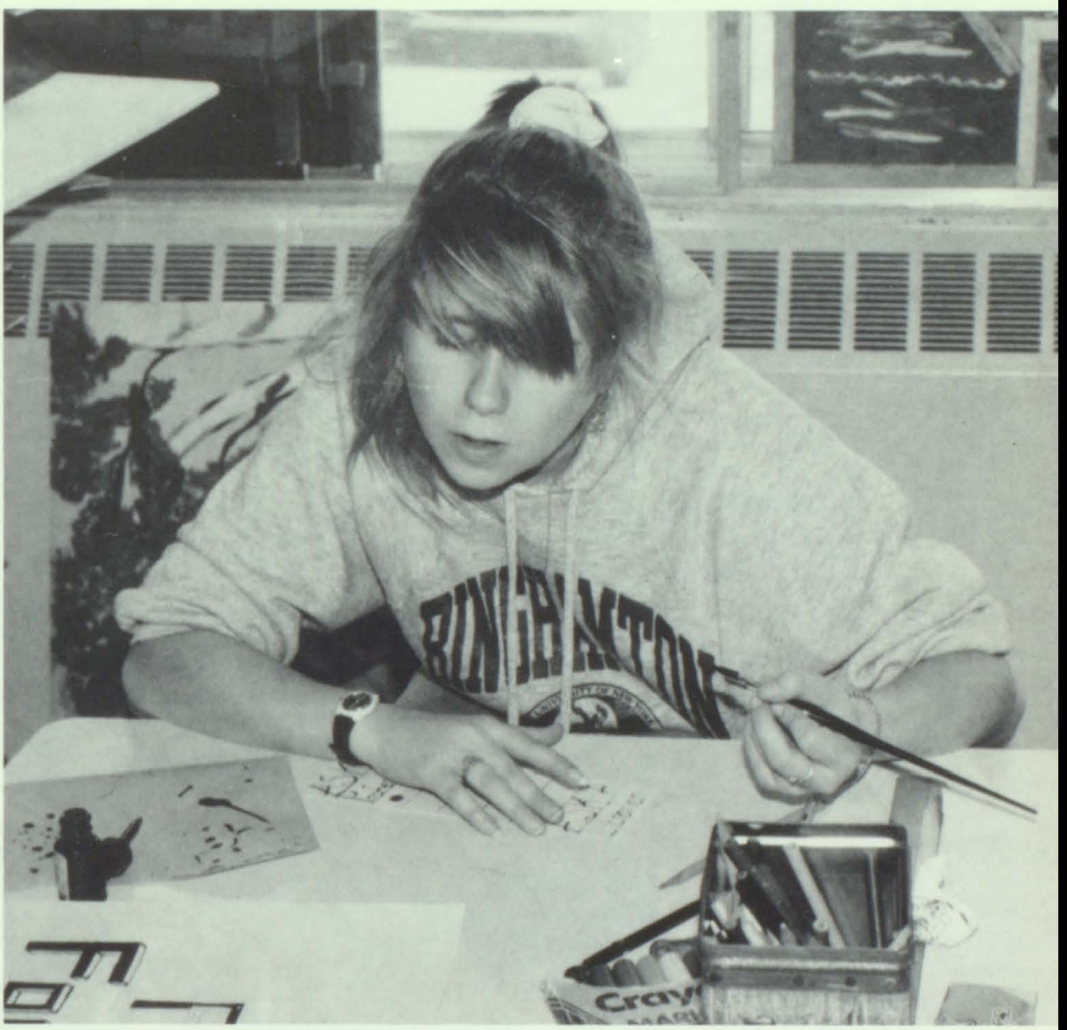
Alone life is impossible.



It is to be shared,
and together we shared it.

Let us make the most of our opportunity to take part and to become involved.

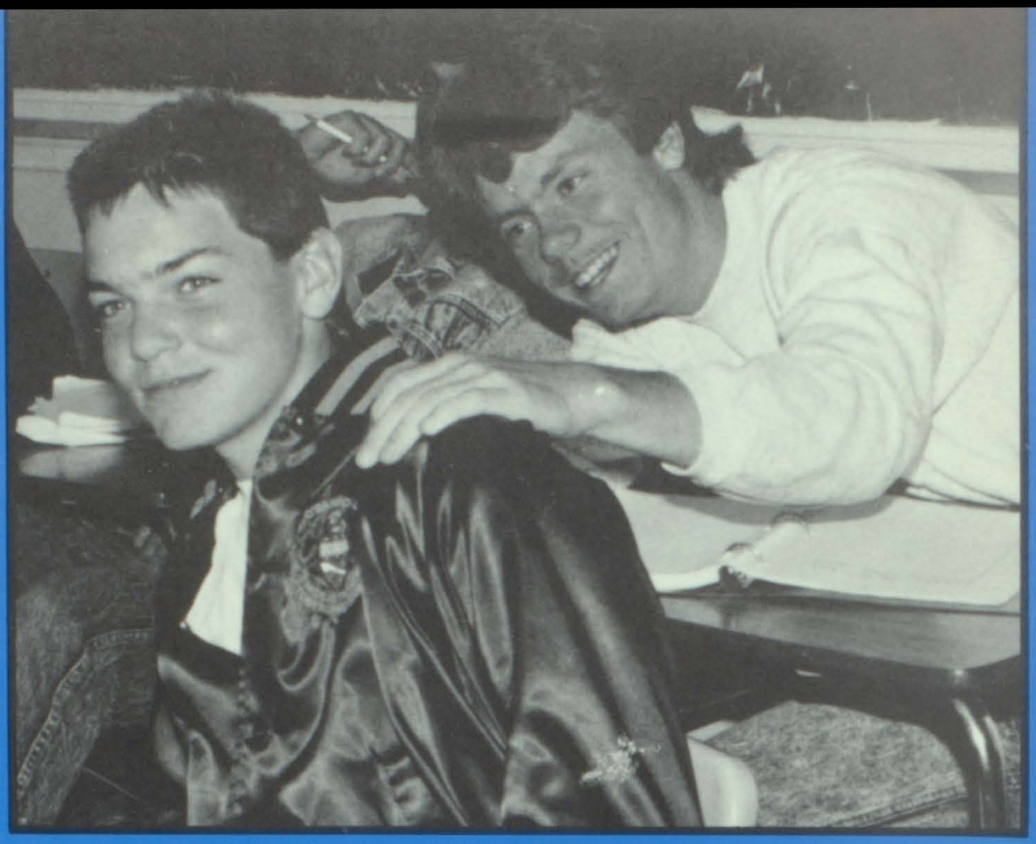
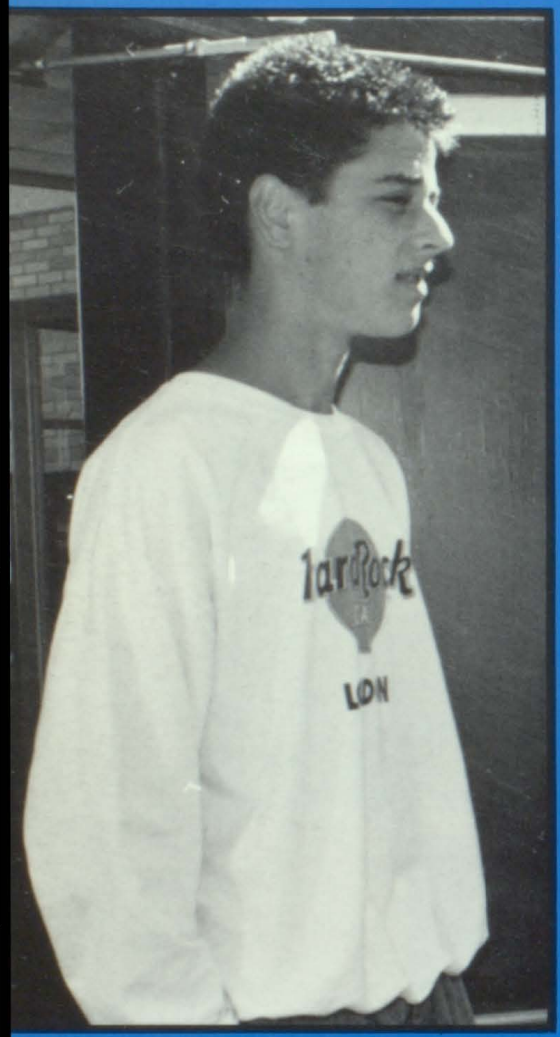
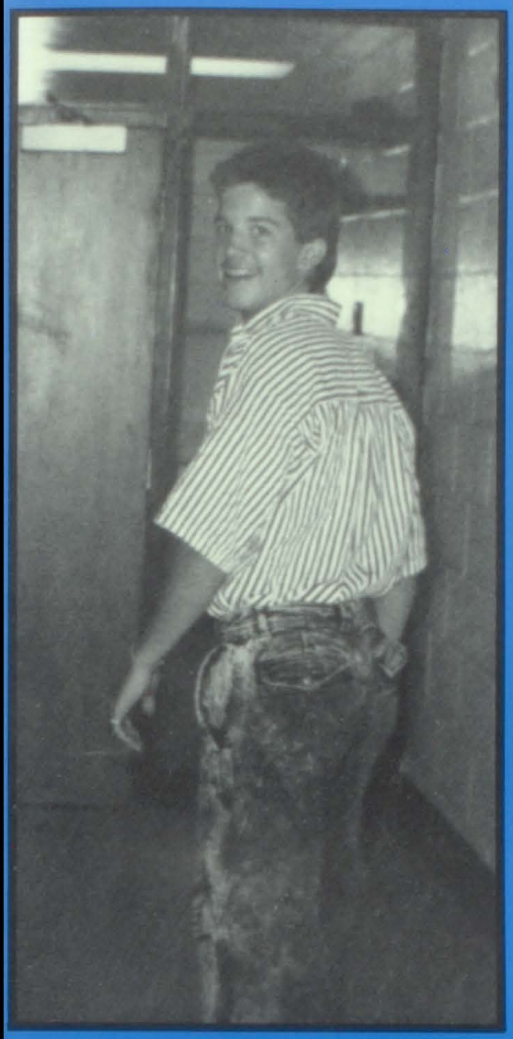
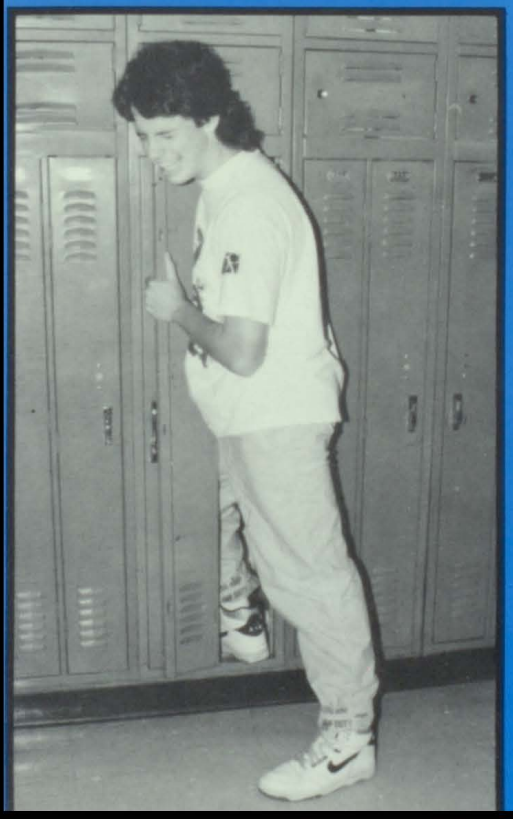
Time passes minutes fly by,









you live, wait,
expect, survive.

Remember the days as they really were, each one different with its own special memories.

THE LIFE

THE LIFE

Some think that our ABC's are the first thing
we learn;
others to add;
still others to walk.
But, before we walk and before we talk we
learn something else;
we learn to love;

As we live the early years we learn more about;
sometimes with pain;
sometimes with joy.
no matter how we learn we learn it here
elementary;
high school.

Days soar by and the future is upon us;
now we're smarter;
now we've succeeded.
We pause our learning and look to the past;
where did we fall;
where did we fly.

We see our mistakes,
but it is those golden moments that shine;
The laughs,
The first love,
The drivers license,
The times that you would lie down and breathe,
The celebrations after the last day of school,
And most of all our friends;
those always there through thick and thin;
those we would leave and would receive us with love when we inevitably returned.

Someday we will all meet again;
hugs and kisses will greet us;
"Do you remember when . . . "fills the air.
We think to ourselves
"That was Living"
